3. MISSION

To maintain the integrity and honour of the medical profession, to represent all members equitably and to promote high quality health care and disease prevention in Nova Scotia.

4. OBJECTS OF THE SOCIETY

The objects of the Society are:

- (a) the maintenance of the integrity and honour of the medical profession.
- (b) to represent, act on behalf of and to enter into agreements for and on behalf of its members.
- (c) the promotion of health and the prevention of disease.
- (d) the improvement of medical service, however rendered.
- (e) the performance of such other lawful things as are incidental or conducive to the welfare of the public and the medical and allied professions.
- (f) the promotion of harmony and unity of purpose between the medical profession and the various bodies assuming responsibility for the care of the sick or injured persons.

5. ETHICS

The Code of Ethics of the Society will be its members' guide to professional conduct. It will include the most recently revised Code of Ethics of the Canadian Medical Association and any elements agreed upon with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Nova Scotia.

6. MEMBERSHIP

- 6.1 The Society will be composed of all those persons granted membership in the Society pursuant to Section 8(1) of the Act and these By-laws.
- 6.2 The Doctors Nova Scotia Act requires that every person who holds a license under the Nova Scotia Medical Act entitling him/her to engage in the practice of medicine shall be a member of the Society and entitled to the rights and privileges of the applicable classification of membership upon payment of the prescribed fees.
- 6.3 The membership year and the fiscal year will be set by the Annual General Meeting of the Society upon the recommendation of the Board.
- 6.4 Members of the Society will, subject to the Rules and Regulations, enjoy the rights and benefits and be subject to the duties and responsibilities of one of the following classifications of Members in the Society:
 - (a) Full Members
 - (b) Life Members
 - (c) Retired Members
 - (d) Associate Physicians
 - (e) Members on Leave

- (f) Medical Student Members
- (g) Resident/Fellow Members
- (h) Non-Resident Members
- (i) Honourary Members
- (j) Restricted Members
- (k) Temporary Members

7. DISCIPLINE

- 7.1 Full membership will terminate if the member no longer holds a Nova Scotia medical licence with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Nova Scotia and dues paid are forfeited.
- (a) Article 7.1 will not preclude a full member from applying for Special Consideration status pursuant to subsection 6.4(g).
 - (b) Article 7.1 will not preclude a member from continuing to participate in the insurance program, providing the member's membership dues are paid in full.
- 7.2 Members waive any rights or claims to damages that they may have against the Society if membership ceases in accordance with these By-laws.
- 7.3 Upon reinstatement of a member's medical license from the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Nova Scotia, the member may apply for reinstatement as a member of the Society.

8. MEETINGS

Conduct of Meetings

- 8.1 Robert's Rules of Order in its most current edition will be the guide for conducting all meetings of the Society. If a procedural conflict arises between the rules of order and these By-laws, the By-laws will prevail.
- 8.2 Quorum for the Annual General Meeting and any Special meetings of the Society will be twenty-five (25) voting members and for all other committees of the Society, including the Board will be one-half of the voting members.

Annual General Meeting

- 8.3 The Annual General Meeting will be held at least once every calendar year at a time and place determined by the Board.
- 8.4 All members entitled to attend the Annual General Meeting will be given at least thirty (30) days' notice of the meeting, specifying the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of special business, the nature of such business. Notice will be given in writing by email and will be posted on the Doctors Nova Scotia website.

- 8.5 The business of the Annual General Meeting will include:
- (a) Minutes of the preceding Annual General Meeting.
 - (b) Consideration of the annual report of the Board.
 - (c) Consideration of the annual report of the President.
 - (d) Consideration of the annual report of the Chief Executive Officer.
 - (e) Consideration of the Financial Statements, including balance sheets and operating statements and the report of the auditors.
 - (f) Appointment of auditors.
 - (g) Setting of all membership dues.
 - (h) Any amendments to these By-laws as further outlined in Section 17.
 - (i) Consideration of a Nominating Committee report which includes:
 - (i) Presentation of the incoming Board of Directors; and
 - (ii) Approval of the candidate for President-Elect.
 - (A) If the candidate is not approved or the motion is voted down, the Board then becomes responsible for appointing a President-elect following the Annual General Meeting.
 - (B) The Board will consider the reasons for and implications of the decision and will decide whether it is in the Society's best interest to appoint the existing candidate or ask the Nominating Committee to submit another nomination for the Board's consideration. In either case, the Board will make the final decision and appoint the President-elect.
 - (j) Such special business as the Board wishes to be considered at the Annual General Meeting.
 - (k) Any motions prepared and submitted according to the Guidelines for Preparing Motions for the Annual General Meeting.
- 8.6 (a) The Chair of the Board will preside as Chair at every Annual General Meeting of the Society.

- (b) If there is no Chair or if at any meeting the Chair is not present, the President will preside as Chair.
 - (c) If there is no Chair or if neither the Chair nor the President are present, the members present at the Annual General Meeting will choose a member from among them to be Chair.
- 8.7
- (a) All full members of the Society, as well as medical student members and resident/fellow members, are entitled to attend, speak, and vote at the Annual General Meeting.
 - (b) Members with limited privileges are entitled to attend, speak and vote in accordance with the provisions of the Rules and Regulations affecting each classification of members.
- 8.8
- (a) At any meeting, unless a poll is demanded by a least twenty-five (25) members, a declaration by the Chair that a resolution has been carried and an entry to that effect in the proceedings of the Society will be sufficient evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the members recorded in favour or against the Resolution.
 - (b) If a poll is demanded in the manner outlined in 8.8(a), the Chair will determine how the poll will occur, and the result of the poll will become a Resolution of the Society at an Annual General Meeting.

Special Meetings

- 8.9 Special meetings may be called as follows:
- (a) Special meetings of the Society may be called by the Chair of the Board, President or by written request of any twenty-five (25) members of the Society.
 - (b) Special meetings of the Board may be called by the President, the Chair of the Board, or upon written request of any five (5) voting members of the Board.
 - (c) Special meetings of the Executive Committee may be called by the President or upon written request by any three (3) members of the Executive Committee.
- 8.10 The business discussed at any Special meeting will be as stated in the notice of the meeting.

9. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

- 9.1 The Board will be the executive authority for the Society.
- 9.2 The Board will meet not less than six (6) times during the year at a date and time as determined by the Chair.
- 9.3 In addition to other specific duties and powers assigned elsewhere in the By-laws, the Board will:
- (a) be responsible for developing and executing the strategic direction of the Society; and
 - (b) develop and approve policy governing the Society.
- 9.4 The Board will have the power to delegate authority for specific matters to the Executive Committee, to any of its established Committees or to any Officer.
- 9.5 The Board will be composed of the following:
- (a) President.
 - (b) President-Elect.
 - (c) Past-President.
